ODU led 41-31 at the break and used a 12-0 run to take a 51-47 lead in the third quarter, but the hosts pulled even at 66-66 and again at 68-68 in the fourth. Elon then converted 3-of-4 shots at the free-throw line to close out the game.

- Jordan McLaughlin led the Monarchs in the loss with 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting from the floor. Amari Young just missed out on a double-double with 11 points and a team-high nine rebounds, and Kaye Clark and Althea Kara Angeles followed with nine points each.

DELISHA MILTON-JONES

Experience: Fourth Season at ODU (sixth season overall) Alma Mater: Florida, '97 All-Time Record: 95-65 (.594) Pepperdine Record: 32-32 (.500) ODU Record: 63-33 (.656) C-USA Record: 19-15 (.559) Sun Belt Record: 12-6 (.667)

DeLisha Milton-Jones, the 2022 inductee into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame with a decorated professional career in the WNBA and overseas and former head coach at Pepperdine University, was announced as the new head coach of the Old Dominion women's basketball program by Director of Athletics Dr. Camden Wood Selig on April 17, 2020.

The 2022-23 season saw ODU transition to the Sun Belt Conference, with the Monarchs reaching the semifinals of the conference tournament championship in Pensacola, Florida and finishing 22-12 overall with a 12-6 mark in Sun Belt play. Amari Young earned All-Conference Second Team honors and represented ODU on the All-Tournament Team. Kaye Clark was the league leader in both steals (85) and steals per game (2.50). ODU also landed on CollegeInsider.com's Mid-Major Top 25 poll four times throughout the season, ranking as high as No. 18.

In her second season, the Monarchs finished with a 24-10 overall record and a Conference USA ledger of 12-6 in 2021-22. ODU opened by splitting its first four games with a pair of wins at home, including a Power 5 win over SEC member Auburn. The Monarchs then closed out 2021 with eight straight wins that saw them register another Power 5 win by knocking off Texas Tech in the Van Chancellor Classic en route to winning its bracket there. That streak went to nine to start 2022 as they opened conference play winning at UTSA. ODU also scored a road win over eventual Conference USA Champion Charlotte in late January.

The Monarchs did close their C-USA tenure with a feat only accomplished by the first team in the C-USA as Iggy Allen and Ajah Wayne earned First Team All-C-USA honors. The last time that was done was in 2013-14, the first year the Monarchs were members. Allen was also a First Team All-VaSID choice as ODU ended its season in the second round of the WNIT after scoring a road win at Towson.

Milton-Jones guided the Monarchs to a 13-11 overall mark and a Conference USA Tournament Semifinals appearance in 2020-21. She notched her first win on the Monarchs' bench on Dec. 3 with a 70-47 result over William & Mary in ODU's home opener. Just three days later, she picked up another win over an instate opponent – beating eventual Atlantic 10 champion VCU 81-76 in overtime. The Monarchs closed out the regular season with four wins in their last five games, including a 74-57 triumph on the road at C-USA Champions Middle Tennessee. Milton-Jones' Monarchs carried that momentum with them to Frisco, Texas for the C-USA Tournament. ODU won three games in as many days, including a pair of overtime victories, to reach the semifinals as the No. 6 seed out of the east. ODU took Rice, the west's top seed, to the brink before eventually falling 62-60. In all, the Monarchs were 7-2 in their final nine games.

Under the tutelage of Milton-Jones, three Monarchs earned significant accolades in 2020-21. Victoria Morris and Amari Young both placed on the all-conference second team. Young was also on the C-USA All-Defensive Team and the VaSID All-State Second Team. Wayne played her way on to the C-USA All-Tournament Team. ODU also found success in the classroom in 2020-21 with nine players featured on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Milton-Jones has excelled at every stop of her basketball career. She started her college coaching career as an assistant at Pepperdine in 2016-17. After one season, she moved into the head coaching role and led the program to unprecedented success. In the 2017-18 season, she guided Pepperdine to 10 wins, the most at the Malibu school since 2012. In her second year, the Waves finished 22-10, winning 12 more games than the previous year in one of the best turnarounds in the country. The Waves' 22 victories in 2018-19 also marked the program's most since 2002. Pepperdine earned a WNIT bid for the program's first postseason tournament appearance, and then advanced to the Sweet 16 with wins over St. Mary's and Cal Baptist.

She left Pepperdine for the assistant coaching role at Syracuse following the 2019 WNIT run. Milton-Jones joined the staff of veteran head coach Quentin Hillsman. With Milton-Jones on the bench, the Orange put together a 16-15 mark, highlighted by wins over No. 5 Louisville and No. 8 Florida State.

Milton-Jones's coaching career followed a long and successful professional and international basketball career. Drafted fourth in the 1999 WNBA draft, she played 17 years in the league, retiring from the WNBA in 2016 after setting the record for most games played in league history with 499, which was later broken by WNBA great Sue Bird. She helped lead the Los Angeles Sparks to back-to-back WNBA Championships in 2001 and 2002. She was selected to the WNBA All-Star team in 2000, 2004 and 2007. In all, Milton-Jones played for Atlanta, New York, Washington and San Antonio, in addition to Los Angeles. Her 5,571 career points still rank ninth in WNBA history. She also made stops in Spain, Italy, Turkey, South Korea, the Czech Republic and Russia to play professionally.

On the international stage, Milton-Jones helped the United States win Olympic gold medals in 2000 and 2008. In the latter, she was coached by former ODU legend, Anne Donovan. She missed the 2004 Olympics with an injury. While playing for the national team, Milton-Jones also helped Team USA win FIBA Championships in 1998 and 2002.

Milton-Jones's first venture into coaching came when she was named interim coach of the Los Angeles Stars midway through the 2005 American Basketball Association. She became just the second woman to coach a men's professional basketball team.

Milton-Jones, who played for four years for Carol Ross at Florida, had one of the most remarkable college careers at Florida, capped off her senior year when she was named the 1997 Wade Trophy Winner, the 1997 Honda Award Winner, the 1997 SEC Player of the Year and a First Team All-American selection amongst other highly-touted accolades. She scored 1,858 points during her career, helping the Gators to four straight NCAA tournament appearances. Ironically, her final collegiate game was a 53-51 loss to Old Dominion in the 1997 NCAA Elite Eight. She was named to the Florida Gator Hall of Fame in 2007.
